RE: Letter of representation in the benefit of Sophie Morrison

I, Kate Simpson, in my capacity as the CEO & Club Secretary of the Lansdowne Club (hereafter referred to as "the Club"), state and inform the members of the Gold Alliance and its Founder, Piero Cattarini, that:

1. - Sophie Morrison, as a Member of the Club, has presented the Club with a proposal for the organisation of a social networking event within the Club, the purpose of which is to join members of our Club and other clubs with which the Lansdowne Club maintains reciprocal agreements independently and through the Gold Alliance. The name given to the event has been "V Young European Inter-club Weekend", scheduled for September 2020.
- 2.- The Club has favourably considered the proposal and fully supports the organisation of the "V Young European Inter-club Weekend".
- 3.- With the aim of achieving a successful organisation of the above mentioned "V Young European Inter-club Weekend", the Club has empowered Sophie Morrison and Lauren Short (acting on behalf of the Gold Alliance), to coordinate the organisation of the aforementioned event and to lead the relationship and communications with other clubs for the purposes of organising this special event.
- 4.- For the purpose of certifying the existence and extension of the empowerment described in point 3 above, I execute this letter of representation.

Signed,

Kate Simpson
CEO & Club Secretary

RE: Letter of representation on behalf of the National Liberal Club

I, Rupert Morris, in my capacity as Chairman of the NLC (hereafter referred to as "the Club"), state and inform the Gold Alliance and their representative coordinator Piero Cattarini:

1. That Emma Moore and Cenghizhan Sehir, as Members of the Club, have presented to the Club's Chairman and General Purposes Committee a proposal for the organisation in its premises of an inter-club meeting, joining together members of our club and other clubs with which the NLC maintains reciprocal agreements. The name given to the event has been "V Young European Inter-club Weekend", scheduled for the 11th September 2020.

2. That the Chairman and General Purposes Committee of the Club has approved Emma Moore's proposal and fully supports the organisation of the "V Young European Inter-club Weekend".

3. That, with the aim of achieving a successful organisation of the above-mentioned "V Young European Inter-club Weekend", the Chairman and General Purposes Committee of the Club have empowered Emma Moore and Cengizhan Sehir to coordinate in its name the organisation and, in particular, to lead the relationship and communications with other clubs for the purposes of organising this special meeting.

4. That for the purpose of certifying the existence and extension of the empowerment described in point 3 above, I execute this letter of representation.

Signed,
